Hello!!

Chapter 2

Introduction

Hello. My name is Tim Ream and I'm the Systems Librarian at Fullerton College. I hope you enjoy my sample OER book.

My sample OER book will include chapters related to being a functioning Systems Librarian at the community college level.

Chapter 3

The Library Website

Almost every community college Systems Librarian will have to edit, manage, and develop their library's website. A good library website will provide information and resources to your primary users -Students -Faculty -Community
Poor library websites are sometimes too focused on meeting the needs of librarians and staff, and contain terminology and processes foreign to your primary audiences.
